

QR Code Flyers

One scan to education: product details, dosing, and app integration.

Introduction

QR flyers bridge retail shelves and in-depth education. Customers scan once to access chemotype data, dosing notes, and how products fit into PhytoLogic.

Science Explained Simply

Immediate access to accurate information reduces confusion and overuse. Transparency supports safer, smarter decisions.

CARTA Product Spotlight

Each CARTA product links to a page with: ingredients, chemotype snapshot, suggested use, and stack pairings.

Practical Guidance

Place flyers near each product family and at checkout. Encourage scanning for first-time or curious customers.

FAQ & Myth vs Fact

Q: Do I need the app to scan?

A: No. Scans open a web page; the app adds tracking and regimen tools if desired.

Responsible Use & Safety Notes

Remind customers to store products securely and follow labeled guidance after they leave the store.

Key Takeaway

One scan. Clear answers. Smarter choices.
